Miller and Rhoads Condominium Developer, HRI Properties, Announced New Marketing/Sales Partnership with Dominion Realty Partners and Virginia Realty & Relocation

Richmond, Va. – September 23, 2009 – Downtown’s newest, finest urban condominiums will now be marketed by two of the industry’s most respected real estate firms, Dominion Realty Partners and Virginia Realty & Relocation.

“We couldn’t be more pleased to introduce this unique and innovative community of 133 residences that offer all the latest conveniences and amenities right in the heart of Richmond’s urban renaissance. In addition to the benefit of having a Hilton Garden Inn connected to the condos these new residences are within walking distance to the Central Business District and in close proximity to numerous restaurants, art galleries as well as the newly renovated Center Stage and National Theatre” stated Michael Campbell, Principal with Dominion Realty Partners.

Bo Steele, Associate Broker with Virginia Realty, also commented, “You can live affordably starting in the $130s or lavishly in a penthouse with breath-taking views with an expansive private patio. Also the Hilton Garden Inn is only an elevator ride away with a variety of amenities available to the homeowner. Imagine exercising, swimming, entertaining friends, meeting with clients, arranging for your dry cleaning or just enjoying dinner and cocktails after a long day and never leave the Miller and Rhoads Condominiums.”

Dominion Realty Partners has a track record of success in selling condominiums. Since 2004 Dominion has developed and sold over 1200 condos in the Mid-Atlantic Region. In addition, Dominion’s experience in urban condos in this market includes the development and sales of approx 300 units with their Riverside on the James and Vistas on the James projects.

Virginia Realty and Relocation’s reputation, which spans over 60 years, is respected for their award-winning residential sales team, market knowledge, service and solid business relationships with the Metro-Richmond Business Community.
